Dear Mr. Horton:-

The following is the information you wanted for the codicil to Dr. Griggs' will: full name, William B. Griggs, 1326 North 12th Street, Philadelphia. He promised to bequeath to the Foundation his medical library and his full set of Fincke's homoeopathic potencies.

At present, I am expecting to go to Philadelphia on Friday, February 4th and will undertake to see Dr. Griggs at that time. You suggested that I take with me two copies of this codicil and bring back one of them signed for our own files.

I hope you will be feeling much better.

Yours, as ever,

JMG/mb1

I, WILLIAM B. GRIGGS, of the City of Philadelphia, and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this codicil to my last will and testament dated _____, hereby ratifying and confirming said will except as changed by this codicil as follows:

I give and bequeath to the AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR HOMOEOPATHY, INC., a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the District of Columbia and having its principal office and place of business in the City of Washington in said District of Columbia:

FIRST: My medical library.

SECOND: My full set of Fincke's Homoeopathic Potencies.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have to this codicil consisting of one page set my hand and seal at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, this _____ day of February, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-four.

Signed, sealed, published and declared to be a codicil to his last will and testament by the above named Testator, WILLIAM B. GRIGGS, in the presence of us, who in his presence and at his request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.
